

AT/T was to provide local service. They told me no longer than one hour downtime (max) when switching from my current local carrier. I am now at 7 days with no phone. AtT giving me excuse after excuse, 13 hours on the phone with them, and a wife at home with NO PHONE. This has to be illegal as 911 is not able to be used. There is no billing issues here.